

District I Holstein Show

Many spectators filled the bleachers in the show arena of the Olmsted County Fairgrounds in Rochester for the District I Holstein Show on Wednesday, July 29. Judge Paul Trapp, of Taylor, Wis., had the large task of judging the 98 head that were in Rochester that evening.

Coming away with junior champion female honors was Shir-Man Dundee Rosa exhibited by Todd and Stacy Leiding of Fountain. Judge Trapp selected Sapa-Ska Goldwyn Riesling-ET, first place fall yearling, as reserve junior champion female. Riesling was exhibited by Sapa-Ska Farms, Inc. Honorable mention junior champion was awarded to the first place winter calf, Lady Macland Gold Gabby, exhibited by Macland Holsteins.

Intermediate champion was awarded to Dreamcreek Linjet Fashion, junior three-year old cow, exhibited by Chad Bohn. Reserve intermediate champion was awarded to the winning senior two-year old, Butlerview DM Bernardini-ET, exhibited by Sapa-Ska Farms Inc. Honorable mention was given Redalen Advent Charlot-ET, exhibited by Michael and Katy Redalen.

Taking home the top awards of senior champion, grand champion, best udder of show and top bred and owned went to the winning four-year old, Macland Sept Storm Button, exhibited by Macland Holsteins. Chosen as reserve senior champion and reserve grand champion was five-year old Ziggy-View Durham Raquel, exhibited by Greg and Kris Mahoney.

The Redalen family was awarded both premier breeder and premier exhibitor of the District I Holstein Show.
