

District II Holstein Show

August 22, 2009 | Judge: Ed Bue, Hixton, Wis.

It was a typical summer evening; the county fair was in full swing and the sound of exhibitors rushing to put the finishing touches on their animals for the show could be heard. The judge for the evening was Eddie Bue of Hixton, Wis. Judge Bue placed 70 head of Holsteins for the District II Holstein Show held on Saturday, August 22, 2009.

Junior and reserve junior champion honors went to a pair of summer yearlings. Being named junior champion of the show was Stranshome Aspen Kenna exhibited by Stranshome Holsteins. Reserve junior champion went to Demmers Aspen Twilight exhibited by Demmer Farms.

For intermediate champion, Judge Bue awarded first place junior two-year old, Ms Stanshome Advnt Slim-ET, exhibited by Joe and Reid Stransky. Collecting the reserve intermediate champion banner was Lexy-Lane Linjet Marci exhibited by the Wayne Lexvold Family. Marci was also awarded best udder of the show.

Bringing home the top honors of senior champion and grand champion was Jen-D Manhat Billie, first place five-year old, exhibited by Joe and Reid Stransky and Roger and Jeni Dingbaum. Billie was also named top bred and owned of show. The winning aged cow, Dunderave Milan Lumina, was named reserve senior champion and reserve grand champion of show. Lumina was exhibited by Ken Mueller and Dunderave Holsteins.

Tande Holsteins was honored with the premier breeder banner and premier exhibitor was awarded to Stranshome Holsteins.
