

DISTRICT IV HOLSTEIN SHOW

The District IV Holstein Show was held in conjunction with the Central Plains Open Holstein Show in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, on June 24, 2009. Also exhibiting at the show were Holstein Breeders from South Dakota, Iowa, and Nebraska. Judge Lynn Harbaugh placed 19 head of Holstein cattle for the District IV Holstein Show.

Walking away with top honors for the day was a four-year old cow, Elm-Lane Finley 263, exhibited by Elm-Lane Holsteins. She was also awarded best udder and top bred and owned of show. Reserve senior champion was awarded to first place junior three-year old, Elm-Lane Rudy 301, also exhibited by Elm-Lane Holsteins of Pipestone, Minn.

Junior champion was awarded to Newalta Sept Storm 1538, a winter yearling, exhibited by Jennifer Vanderwal. Stone-Oak Aspen Raindrop was selected as reserve junior champion and she was exhibited by Bernice Vanderwal. Rounding out the final awards for the day had Newalta Dairy winning premier exhibitor and Iland-Acres Holsteins being premier breeders of the show.
