

District V Holstein Show

Rain was pouring down as exhibitors prepared their cattle for the District V Holstein Show in Waconia on August 7. The rain delayed the outdoor show by two hours and forced exhibitors to show inside at the end of the dairy cattle barn. This just goes to show Holstein breeders can make due with any type of situation that is thrown their way and make the most out of the situation.

Judge Steve Searles of Pine Island placed 112 head of Holsteins for the show. Judge Searles chose Blondin Jasper Black Beauty, a spring yearling, as junior champion of the show. Bevendale PW Rainbonnet shown by Dale and Mavis Schmidt was named reserve junior champion of show. Honorable mention was given to the first place fall calf, Budjon Demolish Aquene exhibited by Doug Petzel.

Intermediate champion went to the winning senior three-year old, Win-Top Durham Libby, exhibited by Kenn Mueller and Win-Top Holsteins. Reserve intermediate champion was awarded to the second place senior three-year old, Saintville Edundee Annabell exhibited by Saintville Holsteins. Honorable mention intermediate champion was awarded to the winning junior three-year old, Harmony-Corners Karona, exhibited by Harmony-Corners Holsteins.

Senior champion female was awarded to the five-year old, Stuewes Charles Gianni, owned and exhibited by Andrew Stuewe. Coming in as reserve senior champion was How-EL-Acres Ian Allice shown by Jeff and Tony Kohls. Honorable mention senior champion went to the 125,000 lb. class winner, Indianhead Stromy Powwow-ET, exhibited Jenna Stender.

The ever important award of grand champion of show, along with best udder of show, was bestowed upon the intermediate champion, Win-Top Durham Libby, exhibited by Kenn Mueller and Win-Tip Holsteins. Reserve grand champion and top bred and owned of show was awarded to the senior champion, Stuewes Charles Gianni, owned by Andrew Stuewe. Saintville Holsteins was awarded premier breeder and premier exhibitor of the District V Holstein Show.
