

DISTRICT VI HOLSTEIN SHOW

The District VI Holstein Show helped to kick off the Cannon Valley Fair on July 1, 2009. Chuck Kruschke, from New Richmond, Wis., was the official for the day and judged 32 head of Holsteins. First up into the ring, and eagerly waiting for the show to begin, were eight novice showmen. Judge Kruschke took time to speak with all of them and give them a little microphone time while they were in the show ring. With novice show trophies in hand and huge smiles on their faces, the novice showmen exited the ring and the heifer portion of the show began.

Twenty-two heifers would go before the judge to see how they stacked up against the others. Taking home junior champion honors was Lone-Oaks-Acres Madsn Brandi, a spring yearling heifer exhibited by John Sauber. Reserve junior champion went to the winning fall yearling, Cin-Ray Toystory Partygirl, exhibited by Rachel Schroeder. Honorable mention was awarded to the second place fall yearling, Breeze-Hill Bell Polly, exhibited by A.J. Neil.

From the field of ten milking and dry cows, Judge Kruschke selected five-year old Denn-Mar Morty Expose as senior champion female as well as best udder of show and overall grand champion. Reserve senior champion honors went to Schruppdale Gibson Mary, a junior three-year old exhibited by Square Deal Dairy. The top bred and owned animal was awarded to second place junior three-year old, Mahoney Advent Tia, exhibited by Mahoney Holsteins.
