

Judge Bonnie Van Dyk began the District VII Holstein Show at noon on Tuesday, July 6th. She placed an impressive 35 heifers and 22 cows, totaling 57 head, at the Chisago County Fairgrounds in Rush City.

Judge Van Dyk named two Sonnek animals for Junior Champion and Reserve. The first, Sonnek Advent Ecstatic, was the first place summer yearling owned by Eric Sonnek & Sarah Beck; Reserve Junior Champion was the first place winter yearling owned by Eric Sonnek & Brady Engquist, Sonnek Jayz Daisy.

Intermediate Champion honors were bestowed upon Ed-Nick Roy Kaylen 358, the first place Senior Two-Year-Old owned by Becca Blodgett; following in the Reserve Intermediate Champion slot was the first place Senior Three-Year-Old, Ju-Lar Durham Bunnie-ET. She was exhibited by Lindahl Farms LLC.

The first place five-year-old cow exhibited by Kevin & Julie Mathison, Walkerwin OG Dynasty, was awarded the Senior Champion, Grand Champion and Best Udder rosettes. The first place four-year-old cow, Chi-Lakes Dundee Snickers, exhibited by Dale & Sharon Anderson, was named Reserve Grand Champion, Reserve Senior Champion and Top Bred & Owned of the show.

The day concluded with a showmanship class for youth. In the Junior Division Brady Engquist took first place, followed by Sarah Beck. AnaChristine Anderson topped the senior division and Taylor Engquist was a close second.

Buehring Farms earned the title of both Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor of the show.
