

DISTRICT VII HOLSTEIN SHOW

As you walked to the announcers table next the show ring in Mora, you could hear the buzz of clippers, whoosh of hair dryers and the sweet smell of final bloom on the cattle. East Central Minnesota Holstein breeders were busy preparing their animals for the district show which was to begin at 12:00 p.m. The judge for the show was Scott Ellinghuysen, Altura, Minn. Judge Ellinghuysen placed 28 heifers and 19 cows for a total of 47 head.

Winning top honors in the heifer portion of the show was Ms Sonnek Damion Delilah, a spring yearling, exhibited by Brooke Hoeft. Sonnek Dundee Classy was named reserve junior champion, winning fall yearling, also exhibited by Brooke Hoeft.

A pair of senior two-year old cows took home top awards in the intermediate champion division of the show. Judge Ellinghuysen chose Sonnek Damion Becky-ET, exhibited by Brooke Hoeft, as intermediate champion and Ed-Nick Terrason 276, exhibited by Buehring Farms, as reserve intermediate champion. Taking home all of the top prizes in the senior division was Ju-Lar Hi Metro Marigold exhibited by Lindahl Farms. Marigold was named senior and grand champion of the show, top bred and owned and best udder of show. Reserve senior champion was awarded to Ed-Nick Sept Storm 182 shown by Buehring Farms. Receiving reserve grand champion honors was Sonnek Damion Becky-ET, exhibited by Brooke Hoeft.

Buehring Farms, Rush City, took home both premier breeder and exhibitor banners. Judge Ellinghuysen also judged junior and senior showmanship; selecting Sara Beck as champion junior showman and Brooke Hoeft as champion senior showman.
