

DISTRICT X HOLSTEIN SHOW

Despite the cool temperatures, the sun was shining brightly after a long period of gray skies and rainy weather on the day of the District X Holstein Show. Thirty-five head of Holsteins came to the Wadena County Fairgrounds to be inspected by Judge Loren Olson and to see how they stacked up against other local Holsteins.

Judge Olson placed 20 heifers that were vying for the spot of junior champion. Olson chose a stylish summer yearling, West-Lake Ace Lynn, as the junior champion of the show. First place fall yearling, TJ-Pollema Aspen Pistol, was named reserve junior champion of the show.

After judging a lineup of 15 cows, Judge Olson chose Havencrest Durham Ella, a senior two-year old exhibited by Scha-Way Holsteins, as the senior and grand champion of the show. Reserve senior champion honors went to Intrigue Julie-ET exhibited by Mike Hendrickx. Julie was also selected as reserve grand champion. Top bred and owned of show went to R-S-Blackstar Astro Grace exhibited by Rodney Cloose. Premier breeder honors went to R-S-Blackstar Holsteins and Sherdale Holsteins was named premier exhibitor.
